

Trees For Tomorrow

Environmental Education Center

2020 Environmental Education Internship Positions!

2 positions June 8 – August 14 (limited flexibility in start and end dates)

Trees For Tomorrow Natural Resources Specialty School, located in Eagle River, Wisconsin, is searching for two highly motivated individuals interested in gaining experience teaching people of all ages about sustainability and proper management of natural resources.

Provided:

- Room and Board: On-site living in a dorm and most meals provided by our food service staff.
- Staff willing to work with you to gain internship credits through your school.
- A $1400 scholarship will be awarded upon completion of internship and required project

Qualifications:

- At least 18 years old.
- Current student in natural resources, biology, education or related fields.
- Willingness to learn and teach in the classroom and outdoor settings using various equipment such as canoes.
- Positive attitude and ability to work well with others.
- Ability to communicate with a variety of ages and backgrounds.

- Willingness to work variety of shifts, including nights and weekends.
- Valid driver's license and willingness to drive a 15-passenger van with canoe trailer.
- Willingness to work with animal artifacts such as skulls, pelts, and related taxidermy.
- Ability to walk 5 miles over rough terrain with a 20-pound pack.
- Appreciated but not required: Current First Aid/CPR certification and/or Lifeguard certification.

Experience Gained:

- Required project: create and evaluate a lesson plan.
- One-on-one training and professional development opportunities.
- Learn effective hands-on teaching techniques for inquiry and experiential education.
- Valuable teaching experience under the mentorship of professional teaching staff.
- Experience in animal care and handling (including snakes, turtle, raptor).
- Networking opportunities with local resource professionals.
- Making new friends and lifelong memories while living in the Northwoods!

Application
Deadline
March 20th

Questions or To apply: Send cover letter, resume, and include at least 2 letters of reference to Bethany Heft, Intern Coordinator, beth@treesfortomorrow.com

